

R. H. Cameron is in from the Grand Canyon this week.

All the fresh fruit of the season on sale at the Second Hand Store.

L. S. Drum, the rancher of Stone-mans Lake, is in town this week.

A. B. Zeckendorf is taking in the sights at the Grand Canyon this week.

The Fourth of July being a holiday the Arizona Central Bank will be closed.

The Milton hose team are practicing every night and expect to run away with the prizes in the hose contest.

R. H. Hannan, of Chicago, came in yesterday. He has been appointed range rider on the forest reserve force.

Major J. H. McClintock stopped here yesterday on his way home from the Rough Rider's reunion, at Las Vegas.

C. H. Schultz and wife, Mrs. Austin, Miss Logie, Dr. Miller and D. M. Francis are spending the week at Oak Creek.

R. H. Gardiner, the veteran photographer, is in town north of city hall, and will remain for ten days only. Call early.

The machinery in the steam laundry is being tested this week getting ready for the regular work. The laundry will be in operation Monday.

The friends of Miss Lotta Beal who appreciate her elocutionary abilities surprised her Thursday night by presenting her with a handsome gold medal.

During the week rain showers have taken place in portions of the county. The rain of yesterday was the beginning of the summer showers and it is hoped the rain fall will be abundant.

Jean Allison, who was arrested at Jerome, and brought here Monday charged with illegally fishing in Oak Creek, was discharged at the hearing Wednesday by Justice of the Peace, Prime, there being no evidence against him.

The branding of the Elk herd, of Flagstaff will take place at the Red Men's hall on Thursday night, July 8.

George A. Wood has received from the publishers the first invoice of his work entitled "Personal Impressions of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado River." The work is handsomely illustrated and printed on good paper, and the interesting matter contained between the covers should cause this unique work to have a wide sale.

The committee on reception is composed of J. E. Palmer, J. W. Weatherford and F. B. Beistman. Those having rooms to rent should leave the number of rooms and number of persons they can accommodate with J. E. Palmer. Strangers desiring rooms can find out where they can be secured by enquiring at the Western Union Telegraph office.

Tickets for Fourth of July Ball are on sale at the following places: Babbitt Bros., P. R. Weatherford & Co's., New Bank Hotel, P. O. Jewelry Store, J. W. Weatherford's, Brannon's Drug Store, Flagstaff Cash Store, G. H. Coffin's, Carrolton Hotel, A. L. & T. Co. Commissary, and at the Opera House on the evening of the ball.

Chas. Gill, while riding in the vicinity of Kendrick mountain on Sunday, had his left leg broken above the ankle. The horse he was riding bucked and in such a way as to bring his foot against the ground, breaking the bone. Notwithstanding the accident he rode the unruly animal twelve miles into town before he could have the injury attended to by a physician. Mr. Gill is rather unfortunate, as four months ago he had the right leg broken by being thrown from a horse.